

Below is a comprehensive profile of the Research and Documentation Directorate (RDD), Kano State

1. Establishment

The Research and Documentation Directorate is a Directorate under the Office of the Executive Governor, Kano State. It serves as the Governor's research, policy analysis, documentation, and strategic advisory unit, providing evidence-based information to support governance.

2. Vision

To promote effective governance through quality research, accurate documentation, strategic policy analysis, and timely information for executive decision-making.

3. Mission

To provide the Governor with credible research findings, policy advice, documentation services, and analysis of political, economic, and social developments affecting Kano State.

4. Core Mandate

The Directorate is mandated to:

Evaluate political developments and advise Government.

Conduct research on political, economic, social, religious, and commercial issues.

Identify potential threats and conflict areas.

Recommend policy options to Government.

Monitor activities of NGOs and relevant organizations.

Review Federal Government policies affecting Kano State.

Review speeches, policy papers, and executive submissions.

Maintain government records, archives, and databases.

Establish and maintain a functional government library.

Carry out any assignment directed by the Governor.

5. Major Functions

The Directorate performs work in the following areas:

Policy research

Strategic planning

Political intelligence

Government documentation

Data collection

Executive brief preparation

Speech review

Policy evaluation

Monitoring and evaluation

Report writing

Public opinion analysis

Government archiving

Information management

Conflict analysis

Executive advisory services

6. Leadership

The Directorate is headed by a Director General (DG).

The official website identifies the current Director General as Haj. Nana Asma'u Jibrin.

7. Organizational Structure

Although the complete internal structure is not officially published, government budget documents indicate units including:

Director General

Administration and General Services

Director planning

Research Units

Documentation and Archives

Policy Analysis

Monitoring and Evaluation

Library and Data Management

Finance and Accounts

Procurement

Human Resources

ICT Support

Protocol and Logistics

8. Typical Departments

A practical structure for such a directorate would include:

Department	Responsibility
------------	----------------

Administration	Staff and office management
----------------	-----------------------------

Research	Policy and governance research
----------	--------------------------------

Documentation	Government records and archives
---------------	---------------------------------

Monitoring & Evaluation	Tracking implementation
-------------------------	-------------------------

Political Affairs	Political analysis
-------------------	--------------------

Economic Research	Economic policy analysis
-------------------	--------------------------

Library & Database	Knowledge management
--------------------	----------------------

ICT	Digital records and systems
-----	-----------------------------

Finance Budget and accounting
Procurement Procurement processes

9. Daily Responsibilities

Staff typically:

Conduct field research.

Collect government data.

Analyze policies.

Prepare executive briefs.

Review speeches.

Document official activities.

Produce weekly and monthly reports.

Maintain archives and databases.

Coordinate research with ministries and agencies.

Monitor political and socio-economic developments.

10. Stakeholders

The Directorate works closely with:

Office of the Governor

Deputy Governor's Office

Secretary to the State Government

Ministries, Departments and Agencies (MDAs)

Kano State House of Assembly

Federal Government institutions

Development partners

Civil society organizations

Universities and research institutions

Security agencies

11. Key Outputs

The Directorate produces:

Policy briefs

Research reports

Situation reports

Executive summaries

Governor's briefing notes

Strategic assessments

Speech reviews

Government documentation

Annual reports

Databases and archives

12. Skills Required for Staff

Research methodology

Public policy analysis

Report writing

Data analysis

Microsoft Office

Presentation skills

Communication

Records management

Information management

Confidentiality

Government procedures

13. Annual Activities

Typical annual activities include:

Policy research projects

Government performance reviews

Development of executive briefs

Documentation of major government events

Monitoring of public policies

Stakeholder consultations

Strategic planning sessions

Publications and newsletters

14. Budget

The Directorate receives annual allocations through the Kano State budget. Recent budget documents include funding for administration, research and development, and organizational units such as the Director General's office, Administration & General Services, and Real Sector and Economic Growth.

15. Contact Information

Phone: 081 2110 9999

Email: info@rdd.kn.gov.ng

Official website: <https://rdd.kn.gov.ng>

16. Sample Key Performance Indicators (KPIs)

Number of research reports completed

Executive briefs delivered on time

Policy reviews conducted

Government activities documented

Stakeholder engagements held

Quality and timeliness of reports

Database updates completed

Monitoring reports submitted

17. Strategic Importance

The Directorate serves as the Governor's internal policy and research think tank. Its work helps ensure that executive decisions are informed by research, evidence, and analysis, while preserving institutional records and documenting government activities for accountability and future reference.